No more recounting in the evening

Before In the evening, you recount the notebook, the cash and the stock. And something is always missing, without knowing where.

With vitePOS Every sale is recorded the moment you take payment. In the evening, you know what should be in the till.

What you gain

No more change mistakes
Customers pay in FC, $ or €: vitePOS works out the change, at the daily rate you set.

You know what to restock
vitePOS warns you when a product is running low, and 30 days before a batch expires.

The evening till, no maths
vitePOS tells you what should be in the drawer. You count, and any gap stands out.

A business people trust
Every customer gets a receipt with your name, logo and contact details, printed or sent by WhatsApp.

Trust, and check
Each seller has their own account: you know who sold what. A cancelled sale stays visible, with its reason.

Your business, wherever you are
The day's sales, expenses and profit on your phone, even far from the store.
